WHEDA Welcomes Tim Radelet as General Counsel

Madison – The Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority (WHEDA) is pleased to announce that Tim Radelet will be joining the authority as its General Counsel.

The move brings Radelet full circle. Prior to his 26-year tenure at Foley and Lardner’s Madison office, Radelet served as WHEDA’s Staff Attorney and then General Counsel. While at Foley, Radelet specialized in housing development and finance, especially for low and moderate income families and the elderly or those with special needs.

“WHEDA is thrilled to welcome Tim,” said WHEDA Executive Director Antonio Riley. “Tim is a very strong real estate attorney with great work experience with WHEDA and our business partners. He is highly competent with strong experience and wide regulatory knowledge. His background and expertise match the WHEDA mission well, making him a logical choice for WHEDA’s General Counsel.”

Radelet will begin at WHEDA Feb. 1.

“I’m looking forward to this challenge,” said Radelet, who often worked closely with WHEDA while at Foley. “I hope this will give me the opportunity to do some good work and to pursue issues related to housing finance and economic development that I haven’t been able to do before.”

WHEDA is an independent state authority that works with lenders to provide low-cost financing for housing and small business development in Wisconsin. For more information on WHEDA’s housing programs call 1-800-334-6873 or visit WHEDA’s web site www.wheda.com.
